

INTRODUCTION

What are the privileges of a Direct Shipper permit?

A Direct Shipper permit allows certain people to deliver malt beverages, wine, or cider directly to a resident of Oregon. A Direct Shipper permit does not allow the holder to ship malt beverages, wine, or cider directly to an Oregon retail licensee.

How does Oregon define “resident of Oregon?”

“Resident of Oregon” means an individual residing in Oregon, even if only temporarily.

What are the definitions in Oregon for cider, malt beverage, and wine?

- Cider is made from the fermentation of the juice of apples or pears that contains more than one-half of one percent and not more than 8.5% alcohol by volume, including, but not limited to, flavored, sparkling, carbonated, or fortified cider, but “cider” does not include wine.
- Malt Beverage means beer, ale, porter, stout and other similar fermented beverages that contain more than one-half of one percent and not more than 16% of alcohol by volume and that are brewed or produced from malt, wholly or in part, or from rice, grain, bran, glucose, sugar or molasses as a substitute for malt. Malt beverage does not include cider, mead, sake or wine.
- Wine is made via the fermentation process, is not a cider or malt beverage, and contains more than one-half of one percent and not more than 21% alcohol by volume. Note: Cider containing more than 8.5% alcohol is considered wine.

What is the fee for a Direct Shipper permit?

The fee is $100 per calendar year regardless of how many types of alcohol you are approved to ship.

For what period of time is a Direct Shipper permit valid?

A Direct Shipper permit expires on December 31 of each year. Every year you must renew the permit and pay the $100 fee to maintain a valid Direct Shipper permit. The OLCC will mail you a renewal application every year.

What are the qualifications to obtain a Direct Shipper permit?

- You must hold a license issued by a state within the United States other than Oregon and your license must authorize:
 - * The manufacture of malt beverages, wine, or cider; and/or
 - * The sale of malt beverages, wine, or cider at retail in sealed containers for consumption off the licensed premises.

What is a privilege tax?

Oregon assesses a tax on the privilege of shipping malt beverage, wine, or cider into Oregon. This is called a privilege tax. The holder of the Direct Shipper permit is responsible for declaring and paying the privilege tax to the OLCC.

What is a privilege tax bond?

This is a bond the holder of a Direct Shipper permit is required to obtain. It allows the OLCC to collect payment if the privilege taxes are not paid. The minimum bond amount is $1,000. For questions email OLCC.Bonds@oregon.gov.

Is there an exception to the requirement to obtain a privilege tax bond?

Possibly. The holder of a Direct Shipper permit with approval to ship ONLY WINE may be eligible for a bond waiver (see page 3). There is no waiver for malt beverage or cider.

What are the record keeping and reporting requirements?

You must file on a quarterly basis with the OLCC’s privilege tax department and pay any owed tax. Reports for the preceding calendar quarter are due on or before the 20th day of Jan, Apr, July and Oct. When the OLCC issues you a Direct Shipper permit, the privilege tax department will send you all required forms within 30 days. If you have any questions email OLCC.PrivilegeTax@oregon.gov.
