Why Davis Wright Tremaine?

At Davis Wright Tremaine LLP (DWT) we bring a client-centric, industry-focused, multidisciplinary approach that enables us to provide business and legal value to every representation. Whether we are assisting you with complex litigation, major deals, or thorny regulatory issues, our goal is to use our legal skill, technology, and sector knowledge to help you “see around corners” in a constantly evolving business, legal, and regulatory landscape. Our approach has been recognized by BTI Consulting, a top consulting firm that conducts independent research on professional service providers, naming us one of the firms “best suited for high-value new and novel work” and “best equipped to meet the new leading-edge expectations.”

We are dedicated to client service. We are practical, responsive, and easy to work with. Our priority is to ensure your concerns do not keep you up at night, and we are dedicated to providing solutions that advance your business goals and limit disruption to your business.

We are ranked by Chambers and Partners in 52 departments and more than 100 of our lawyers are recognized by the organization. Our clients describe us to Chambers as “first class all around. Their service levels and responsiveness are very strong.” Clients also laud our “ability to handle complex and sophisticated matters” and say we provide “advice that is well thought out, practical and useful.”
