Table of Contents

A. The Direct Relationship Philosophy ................................................................. 1
B. Accepting the Union’s Adversarial Role .......................................................... 3
C. Managing With a Union ....................................................................................... 4
D. Managing with Direct Relationships ................................................................. 7
E. Law of Union Organizing ................................................................................... 8
F. Employer Unfair Labor Practices: Section 8 (A) Of The Act ......................... 11
G. Appropriate Voting Units .................................................................................... 16
H. NLRB Process for Handling Union Petitions for Representation Elections .... 21
I. An Inside Look at How Unions Organize Healthcare Employees .................... 27
J. Corporate Campaign ......................................................................................... 35
K. CNA/NNOC and SEIU Specifics on Organizing ............................................. 36
L. Role and Expectations of Supervisors and Managers During a Union-Organizing Campaign ......................................................................................................................... 39
M. Communicating to Your Employees During a Union Organizing Drive ......... 43
N. Glossary of Employee and Labor Relations Terms ....................................... 51

Day Two

I. Measuring Union Vulnerability and Why Some Employees Choose Union Representation ........................................................................................................................................ 75
   A. Why Do Employees Join Unions? ................................................................. 75

II. Interpersonal Communication .......................................................................... 77
   A. Shaping the Work Environment ................................................................. 77
   B. Communication to Each Individual ........................................................... 78

III. Mobilizing, Motivating and Training the Management Team ...................... 80
   A. How to Conduct the “Management” Training Program ............................ 80
   B. How to Set Clear and Specific Supervisor Expectations ............................ 82
   C. How to Convert the Skeptical or Reluctant Supervisor ............................. 82
   D. How to Deal With Internal Politics Impeding Your Efforts ..................... 83
   E. How to Handle the Ineffective and/or Unmotivated Supervisor ............... 84
   F. How to Maintain Positive Managerial Communication During the Campaign ....................................................................................................................................... 85
   G. How to Ensure that Every Manager and Supervisor Is Involved and Motivated to Win .................................................................................................................. 86
This manual has been prepared by Clif Elliott of Davis Wright Tremaine and James Velghe of Work Dynamics Inc.

This manual may not be duplicated or distributed without the written consent of either Davis Wright Tremaine or Work Dynamics, Inc.
How to Order

To schedule a training session tailored to your individual organization’s needs, please contact:

Clif Elliott, Partner
Davis Wright Tremaine LLP
206.757.8039 direct
206.757.7039 fax
206.465.8084 mobile

Donna Alexander, Legal Assistant
Davis Wright Tremaine LLP
206.757.8402 direct
206.757.7700 fax

Clifton L. (Clif) Elliott
Partner
cifelliott@dwt.com
206.757.8039 direct
206.757.7039 fax
206.465.8084 mobile

Suite 2200
1201 Third Avenue
Seattle, Washington 98101-3045

Related Practices
Employment & Labor
Labor
Corporate Diversity Counseling

Related Industries
Health Care
Hospitals