

OUTSIDE GENERAL COUNSEL

Emerging and mid-size businesses often have complex and varied legal needs that can distract management from running and growing the business. But such companies do not always need a full-time “in-house” lawyer.

Davis Wright Tremaine’s Outside General Counsel (“OGC”) program helps bridge this gap by providing a one-stop and economical source for legal advice and counsel. We assure that a coordinated approach is taken to the handling of all your company’s legal needs.

As your dedicated OGC, DWT Partner Michael Sloan handles your day-to-day and strategic legal issues, drawing upon the resources of the firm – with 500 attorneys across nine offices – to provide specialized assistance when necessary.

Mike has sixteen years of practical experience helping companies in various industries anticipate and minimize legal risk and capitalize on opportunities when they arise. He and his colleagues at DWT will invest the time to learn your business and will make sure that specialized legal issues are addressed by experts in an efficient and cost effective manner.

The DWT team can help clients meet almost any legal challenge, including:

- Business formation, structure, and corporate governance
- Financing, M&A, and Tax
- Contract drafting and negotiation
- Intellectual property protection
- Employment and non-compete agreements
- Incentive and executive compensation programs
- Regulatory compliance
- Dispute resolution
- Privacy (including HIPAA)

While DWT has significant resources in our Washington D.C. and New York City offices, more than 60% of our firm’s attorneys and paralegals reside in the Pacific Northwest. As a result, we can offer a value proposition that few of our competitors in Washington D.C., New York, or California, can match.

We welcome the opportunity to meet with you in person and to provide a customized proposal that meets your needs.
