

Jeanette Lodwig
General Counsel
Seattle Foundation

Jeanette Lodwig has served as Seattle Foundation's General Counsel since 2012. She advises Seattle Foundation on a wide variety of issues such as acceptance of complex assets, compliance with donor advised fund rules, endowment management, impact investing, foreign grantmaking, and lobbying. As a member of Seattle Foundation's Leadership Team, she also serves as a strategic advisor to support growth for community impact. Prior to joining Seattle Foundation, Jeanette was a member of Davis Wright Tremaine's Tax-Exempt Organizations practice group, where she served as a trusted advisor to many foundations, public charities and other nonprofit organizations.
