
DWT SPEAKERS

Jean L. Tom // PARTNER // SAN FRANCISCO // NEW YORK

Jean represents a diverse array of non-profit organizations, including public charities, private foundations, social welfare organizations, and trade associations, on corporate, tax, and regulatory matters both domestically and internationally. She counsels on entity choice and formation, tax compliance, grantmaking, governance matters, executive compensation, and organizational structuring (e.g., subsidiaries, affiliates, joint ventures, and mergers). Jean also advises clients on public and private partnerships, political intervention and lobbying, and program- and mission-related investments. A frequent speaker on matters pertaining to non-profits, Jean has also represented organizations in connection with attorney general investigations and before the IRS.

jeantom@dwt.com / 415.276.6538

Kraig L. Marini Baker // PARTNER // SEATTLE

Chair, Technology, Advertising, Trademark, and Entertainment; Co-chair, Games Practice

Kraig focuses on advising clients and providing assistance with licensing transactions across the full range of issues in media, entertainment, technology, advertising, privacy and Internet matters, with a particular emphasis on digital media and entertainment.

kraigbaker@dwt.com / 206.757.8007

David A. Lawson // ASSOCIATE // SEATTLE

David advises nonprofit and for-profit clients on tax exemption and charitable initiatives. His practice encompasses tax advice for exempt organizations, corporate governance, state charitable trust and solicitation compliance, corporate transactions involving nonprofits, and health care, with a special focus on emerging issues at the intersection of nonprofits and technology. David's clients include hospitals and health care organizations, universities and colleges, publicly traded companies engaged in philanthropy and cause marketing, community and private foundations, charitable trusts, major public charities, and trade associations.

davidlawson@dwt.com / 206.757.8254

Dsu-Wei Yuen // ASSOCIATE // SEATTLE

Dsu-Wei focuses her practice on transactional and regulatory matters for the payments industry. She has both in-house and law firm experience working with large and small financial institutions, as well as established and emerging payments companies.

dsuweiyuen@dwt.com / 206.757.8095

Sean B. Hoar // PARTNER // PORTLAND

Sean Hoar, CISSP, GISP, CIPP/US, has extensive experience managing responses to digital crises, and effectively marshalling resources to contain and remediate information security incidents. He served as the lead cyber attorney for the U.S. Attorney's Office in Oregon where he was the point of contact for the FBI, Secret Service and Homeland Security in system intrusions and other digital crime emergencies. He now counsels businesses on best practices in information privacy and data security, and countering cyber security threats. He also facilitates incident response planning and risk assessments, and manages responses to data breaches as a member of DWT's Breach Response Team.

seanhoar@dwt.com / 503.778.5396

Anna C. Watterson // ASSOCIATE // WASHINGTON, D.C.

Anna is a certified information privacy professional with a US private sector (CIPP/US) focus and regularly advises clients on state and federal privacy, security, and data breach matters, with a focus on health information privacy laws, including HIPAA and HITECH. In addition to advising traditional health care providers and business associates on HIPAA compliance, she also advises telehealth providers and vendors and mobile application developers on HIPAA compliance, as well as state law privacy requirements and best practices. Anna also helps health care clients understand the Meaningful Use incentive programs and attestation requirements.

annawatterson@dwt.com / 202.973.4247

Nishka Chandrasoma
Assistant Secretary and Deputy General Counsel
Ford Foundation
320 East 43rd Street
New York, NY 10017
212.573.5000

Nishka Chandrasoma is the Assistant Secretary and Deputy General Counsel of the Ford Foundation, where she provides legal representation on a variety of matters, including compliance with the private foundation tax rules, corporate governance, grantmaking and program-related investments, international operations, and employment. Before joining the Foundation, she was in the Tax-Exempt Organizations practice group at Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler. She has a law degree from Yale Law School and a B.A. in Comparative Literature from the University of California at Berkeley. She is a member of the American Bar Association's Exempt Organizations committee and serves on the Leadership Council of Lawyers for Children.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Thomas C. Schroeder
Senior Counsel
University of California, Office of General Counsel

Thomas C. Schroeder serves as Senior Counsel in the University's Office of General Counsel, where he is a member of the Business Transactions Group (Nonprofit Organizations & Charitable Giving). In this role, Mr. Schroeder advises the University's Office of the President and its ten campuses, five medical centers, three national labs and various affiliated organizations on tax-exempt organization and nonprofit corporation issues. Mr. Schroeder also provides advice on significant charitable gifts and charitable trust law issues.

Prior to joining the University in 2013, Mr. Schroeder was the Associate General Counsel at The William and Flora Hewlett Foundation and, before that, an attorney in the Tax-Exempt Organizations Practice Group at Davis Wright Tremaine LLP.

Mr. Schroeder is a graduate of Bowdoin College (B.A., summa cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa), The Courtauld Institute of Art, University of London (M.A.) and the University of Washington School of Law (J.D., with honors, Order of the Coif).